Course description:

Imagine you find yourself in a fight for your life. Because you are a law abiding citizen, your gun is in your car, but the fight is on. Someone goes down right in front of you. You are able to get to the gun they dropped, but can you really make it work when your life depends on it? Are you able to fight with that pick up gun?

APT Firearms Academy's Street Survival – Battlefield Pick Up Course will increase the student's ability to adapt to the demands of real life defensive scenarios, enhance their skillsets, and challenge their abilities under duress. Students will be given the opportunity to shoot, move, communicate, and problem solve with a variety of unfamiliar handguns or rifles. Students will be exposed to and train with handguns or rifles having different actions, triggers, and locking / unlocking mechanisms than what they are accustomed to using.
